Why Choose this Training Course?

This course covers the three stages of contracting; negotiating the 'deal'; documenting that deal in a robust, but practical way; and managing the performance of the contract itself. This course will help participants to have an awareness of practices in other areas and other industries, which can add significant value to their own situations. Moreover, the course will also give an opportunity to consider matters from the perspective of the other party to a contract.

This course will feature:

- Gaining a broad understanding of contracts and your ability to use them to protect your organisation
- Examining the latest techniques required in order for you to consider and negotiate contracts with confidence
- Considering principles widely used in international contracting, risk allocation and dispute management in contractual disputes
- Practical tips for business professionals to deal with the consequences of non-performance
- Analysing the mechanics of contracting in the English language

What are the Goals?

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the need to negotiate the "deal" before structuring the contract documentation.
- Utilise the tools & techniques to assist in such negotiations & enhance the efficient management of contract.
- Assess the drafting and modification of specific contract clauses, using real examples.
- Introduce some of the differences in approach in different jurisdictions.
- Examine ways to avoid disputes, or to manage them successfully.

Who is this Training Course for?

This course will benefit all levels of personnel engaged in contract management, negotiation, procurement, operations, and disputes. This course is suitable to a wide range of contracts professionals but will greatly benefit:

- Contract Administrators, Contract Professionals and Project Coordinators
- Supply officers, Buyers, Purchasing & Procurement Professionals
- Project, Construction, Cost and Quantity Professionals
- Claims Personnel, including legal Advisers
- Contracts Managers
- Those new to the function, preparing for a major project, or experienced professionals looking for a refresher

How will this Training Course be Presented?

This course will utilise a variety of proven adult learning techniques to ensure maximum understanding, comprehension and retention of the information presented. This includes high levels of participant discussion, group interaction, delegate group exercises and case studies using existing contemporary English language contracts in many jurisdictions. Delegates will be encouraged to raise their own issues and problems faced within their industry or organisations for discussion on a confidential basis.
